"...we're in our first fall swinging Mizuno bats, and our players keep commenting on how much better they perform compared to other bats they have used in the past. The bats are phenomenal..."

"Our team was skeptical at first, but we decided to test Mizuno bats with Rapsodo to see what the data said. After two hours of our players hitting, Mizuno bats outperformed any previous bats our players used every single time. Now we're in our first fall swinging Mizuno bats, and our players keep commenting on how much better they perform compared to other bats they have used in the past. The bats are phenomenal, and they have the data to back it up."
